Died 9-22-2000
Brunswick, ME

WOOLWICH — Donald C. Forbes, an auctioneer who raised funds for charity, died Sept. 22, 2000, of a heart attack while at work in his Brunswick auction house. He was 57.

Mr. Forbes was a frugal man who hated spending money on himself but was generous with others, especially sick children, said his daughter Heather Belanger of Topsham. "He was a big, rough-and-tough man," she said. "He didn't want anybody to know he had a heart, but he really did. He was a softie, and we all knew it."

Donald Forbes

At his Forbes Auction Service, he regularly passed a hat and collected donations for his favorite charity, the Make A Wish Foundation. Mr. Forbes always matched the donations with his own money, said his wife, Lurene Forbes.

He returned to Maine, where on a blind date he met Lurene Sawtelle. They were married in 1969 in Oakland.

From 1971 to 1974, he worked as a police officer in Gorham.

For nearly 25 years he was an antiques dealer and auctioneer, selling items from Maine estates. He taught classes for amateur antique collectors in Gardiner and

Mr. Forbes belonged to the Polar Star Lodge of Masons in Bath and the Masonic lodges in Waterville, Lewiston and Portland.

Surviving are his wife of Woolwich; his mother of Waterville; four daughters, Mrs. Gregory (Donna) Hartan of South Windsor, Conn., Mrs. Richard (Debbie) Donati of Coventry, Conn., Mrs. Robert (Heather) Belanger of Topsham and Jennifer Forbes of West Bath; three sisters, Gloria Flannery of Fort Fairfield, Phyllis Anderson of Orange City, Fla., and Mrs. Richard (Janet) Erickson of Colorado Springs, Colo.; two brothers, William H. of Washburn and Philip of Windsor Locks, Conn.; and five grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Monday at Mayo, Curtis and Hill Funeral Home, 819 High St., Bath, with a Masonic service at 6 p.m. A service will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home.

A gathering for friends and family will be held at the Family Home on Route 1 after the services.

WELLS — Vander W. Forbes Jr., 65, of Gilma Avenue died Thursday after a two-year bout with cancer.

Mr. Forbes left a lasting imprint on the town of Wells through his civic work and charitable donations. But to his family and friends, he is best remembered as a hard-working and caring man.

PASSAGES

Each day the newspaper selects one obituary and seeks to learn more about the life of a person who has lived and worked in Maine. We look for a person who has made a mark on the community or the person's family and circle of friends in small but lasting ways.

his family and friends, he is best remembered as a hard-working and caring man.

"He always treated people with respect. No one was big or little in his eyes," said a son, Matt Forbes of Wells. "If you worked hard, that's what he respected."

Mr. Forbes was born in Portland, a son of Vander W. and Marguerite Chadbourn Forbes. He graduated from Sanford High School and Nichols College in Dudley, Mass. He also attended Maine Maritime Academy in Castine.

During the Korean War, he served in the Army as chief engineer on a seagoing tug stationed in Yokohama, Japan. After his military service, he joined his father in operating Forbes Restaurant on Wells Beach.

Mr. Forbes and his wife entered the hotel business gradually. After working for his father and mother running the Marguerite Hotel and Driftwinds Motel in Wells Beach, he eventually purchased the business.

He is survived by his wife of 36 years, Mary E. Kincade Forbes, two sons, Joseph W. and Vander M. "Matt" Forbes, and a daughter, Karen Forbes Darling, all of Wells; a sister, Ruth Tudeen of St. Petersburg, Fla.; and four grandchildren.

Visiting hours will be held from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday at Bibber Memorial Chapel, 111 Chapel Road. An ecumenical funeral will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in St. Mary's Church, Eldridge Road. Burial will be in Ocean View Cemetery.
