Gardner C. Pope, 94

BRUNSWICK -- Gardner C. Pope, 94, former educator, athlete, and coach, died Nov. 26, 2006, at Thornton Hall, Mid Coast Senior Health Center, surrounded by loving family.

Mr. Pope was born in East Machias on June 22, 1912, the son of John Adams and Alina Gardner Pope. He was married to the former Lillian M. Davis of Cutler on Nov. 28, 1935.

After completing high school at Washington Academy in East Machias, he graduated from Bowdoin College in 1934 with a major in chemistry. He later received his M.A. in Education from the University of Maine in Orono and received post-graduate credits from several universities and colleges.

At Bowdoin he participated in freshman baseball, varsity football, and track in which he lettered all four years as a pole-vaulter. He served as President of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity and was a member of the college band.

Mr. Pope retired in 1972 from Falmouth High School after serving there for 20 years, first as science teacher-coach, then as Principal. Earlier he had served 19 years in the same capacity at Washington Academy in East Machias. In addition to coaching, one of Mr. Pope's proudest accomplishments was developing a number of State Science Fair winners and participants at Falmouth High School.

During his professional career he served as President of the Washington County Schoolmasters' Club, President of the Washington County Teachers Associations, the Cumberland County Triple-C Principals organization, Trustee of Washington Academy, member of the SAD #77 School Board, and on several committees of the State Principals Association including chairmanship of the State Science Fair Committee.

Outside of teaching, Gardner loved to play the saxophone. During his years in East Machias, he held barn dances at his home and the entire town came to hear and dance to his band. Over the years Mr. Pope has maintained an interest in music, and had played in a number of small dance bands in Eastern Maine and in the Portland area. Up until the age of 92, he continued playing the sax at area nursing homes and in the Brunswick UU Church's annual Christmas orchestra.

Gardner C. Pope

In Portland Mr. Pope was a member of the Sixty Plus Club, the Woodfords Club, and a Deacon of the Woodfords Congregational Church. In East Machias he was a member and Deacon of the First Congregational Church, Past Grand Master of the Warren Lodge of Masons, Past Patron of Warren Chapter, Order of Easter Star, member of Victory Lodge of I.O.O.F. and Schoodiewecook Rebekah Lodge.

Mr. Pope enjoyed a long and active, happy retirement. He developed a passion for oil painting, producing note cards from his work, and sharing them with all his friends. What

GEORGE F. PORTER

1914-1998

NEW SHARON — George Francis Porter, 83, of New Sharon, died Sunday, Feb. 1, at his home.

He was born in New Sharon, July 7, 1914, the son of Fred and Nellie (Griffin) Porter. He graduated from New Sharon High School in 1932.

On Sept. 3, 1939, he married Lucille Finley. She died Aug. 19, 1981. They made their home in New Sharon most of their married life.

He had worked for the state plowing snow in the Mars Hill area in his younger years. He later worked for H.P. Hood as a milk carrier throughout the New Sharon and Starks area. He also worked at Smith's Garage and later built and operated his own garage in New Sharon.

For nearly 30 years he fished at the Bulldog Camps on Little Enchanted Pond with his wife and later with friends, and his sons. He enjoyed special times at Kimball Pond at the camp he built in 1955. He was a helpful neighbor and friend and voluntarily mowed the church lawn for many years. He possessed a dry Maine sense of humor. He was an avid reader, enjoyed his birds and was a fair-weather Red Sox fan. After his wife's death, he was comforted by Elizabeth Porter and greatly missed her after her death in 1989.

He was a member of the Congregational Church in New Sharon and a life member of the Franklin Masonic Lodge 123 A.F. & A.M. of New Sharon. He and his wife were longtime members of the New Sharon Couples Club.

Survivors include two sons, Rodney of New Sharon and Malcom and his wife Nancy of Farmington; a daughter by choice, Wendy Hulsh of Farmington; a grandson, Malcolm Porter Jr. of Rockland; a granddaughter, Mary-Ellen Porter-Towne of San Mateo, Calif; a sister-in-law, Nathalie Jones of Farmington; brother-in-law and wife, Roland and Eunice Finley of Dover-Foxcroft; sister-in-law and husband, Myrtle and Galen Wentworth of Dexter; several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a brother; three sisters.

LINWOOD E. PORTER

FREEPORT — Linwood E. Porter, who would have observed his 85th birthday today, a pioneer in the trucking industry, died yesterday.

Mr. Porter was born Aug. 27, 1872 at Freeport and had lived most of his life in the same farmhouse. On his 80th birthday, Mr. Porter looked back on a successful career as the founder of the Atlantic Motor Express in spite of a "little red schoolhouse education."

He started in the business in the days when freight was carried by horse and wagon. He established his own business with one horse and one wagon and soon his business expanded from Portland to Freeport. In 1902 he bought the Tarbox Express Co., Portland, and shortly after opened an office in Boston. In 1905 he renamed his company the Eastern Electric Express Co., and added other small firms to his growing enterprise. By 1911 his trucks covered cities in most of New England and New York.

He sold out his holdings in 1916, intending to retire, but was recalled to operate the business, now called the Atlantic Motor Express Co., when he reorganized it to operate the area east of Boston.

He finally sold out again in 1941, but remained as a director of the company until 1943.

Mr. Porter was a 50-year member of Freeport Lodge, AF & AM, and a charter member of Casco Chapter, OES, the Portland Lions Club and the Woodford's Club. He belonged to the Freeport Fish and Game Association, the Portland Country Club and the Truckers and Carriers Association. He was honorary fire chief of the Freeport Fire Department and served on the Freeport Chamber of Commerce and Town Council seven years.

His wife, the former Sarah Kendall, died in 1922.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Vivian K. Watson, Portland, and three grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, two nieces and a nephew.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow at 749 Congress St., the Rev. Ernest A. Thorsell, pastor of the First Universalist Church, Portland, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Portland.

MAURICE ALMON PORTER

CRYSTAL - Maurice Almon Porter, 92, died peacefully Jan. 3, 2008, surrounded by his family, after a brief illness, at Houlton Regional Hospital. He was born Aug. 20, 1915, in Crystal, the son of Andrew and Sona Grace (Ham) Porter.

Maurice graduated from Island Falls High School, the valedictorian of the Class of 1932. He married the love of his life, Leithe "Bubbie" (Varney) in 1944, and together they raised five children. He farmed potatoes for more than 50 years, along with his brother, Arthur Porter. He was a past master of Island Falls Masonic Lodge No. 206 AF & AM, a past member of Daniel Randall Chapter and belonged to the Maine Trappers Association. He was a member of the advisory committee of F.H.A., Aroostook Federation of Farmers, and served as selectmen and school board member for the town of Crystal for many years. Maurice attended United Baptist Church of Island Falls and enjoyed hunting, fishing, trapping, good times at the camp on Mattawamkeag Lake, and raising a large garden, but most of all he valued being with his family.

He is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Leithe "Bubbie" Porter of Crystal; five children, daughter, Elaine Nester and her husband, Mike Nester.
